

THE CARDINAL FLYER

Volume 9 Issue 27
March 13, 2007

BJ's Corner

Today and tomorrow we honor our teachers and staff.

A very special thank you to each, and best wishes for continued success in your classes.

Below is a tribute to our faculty and staff:

Unique In Your Eyes

Here is a thank-you from all the ordinary children you have taught- because for you none of us was ordinary. You told us that each of us was utterly unique- that no one quite like us had existed since time began. That each of us was an absolute necessity in the whole design - a knot of gold, a flash of crimson, a dazzle of peacock, a gentleness of green. That we should be proud to be ourselves.
And so we are.

Early Dismissal Tomorrow 3/14/07

And walk through the world with a firmer step- because of you.

Pam Brown

Have a great week.
B.J.

Kudos to...

From the Animal Humane Association
Dear Friends,
Thank you for the generous donation of large animal food and toys to the Animal Humane's thrift store. Sales of donated items enable us to care for homeless animals by sheltering, feeding, grooming, exercising and most importantly loving them throughout their stay at our facilities.
Thank you again for supporting AHANM in this way
Donna M. Stumpf

New Spirit Shirts

We have a few of the new spirit shirts in the finance office.

Announcement from the Archbishop

I write to ask that you warn your parishioners that there is a newly opened church called St. Peter and Paul (In Latin) located on Ouray

NW, which is a schismatic church. It may have all the "bells and smells" of a Roman Catholic Church, but it is not. This church is in the union with the Lefebvre movement and does not recognize the Pope or local Bishop. The founder, Archbishop Lefebvre, was excommunicated by Pope John Paul II as you know. Please tell your parishioners that if they attend services at this church they do not fulfill their Sunday or Sacramental obligations.

May I suggest...

Can we have a stoplight in the cafeteria? Green is talk, red is quiet, and yellow is whisper. Rafael S. 4A P.S. I like chocolate milk.

B.J. - Rafael, wonderful idea! I'll look into it and I'm happy you like chocolate milk.

May we have a free dress day every St. Patrick's day? Sydney and Chezerae

B.J.- On Friday you may wear a green shirt with your uniform pants, skirts or skorts.
